PROGRAMME OF CARNIVAL TO BEGIN TONIGHT

Three American Universities Will Be Represented.

SKIERS OUT.

Dr. Lamb In Charge To-Day, Mr. Power In Charge To-Morrow.

This afternoon will see the opening of the first Intercollegiate Winter Carnival ever held at McGill. As teams from three American Universities are entered in the skiing events, the races will be international in character.

Dartmouth, Middlebury and the University of Vermont will take part. Dartmouth's team, consisting of seven men, arrived here yesterday, and have been out practising already, getting familiar with the course. Middlebury is sending four men, three of whom are expected this morning. The University of Vermont will be represented by a squad of six, accompanied by two coaches. Finally, Ottawa Collegiate Institute is sending a crack cross-country man to represent them.

Two events will be run off this afternoon, the Ski Proficiency Contest and the Cross Country Race.

The Ski Proficiency Contest will be held first, being scheduled for three o'clock, at the Park Slide Hill. In another column of to-day's issue, full directions are given whereby the student unfamiliar with the topography of the Mountain can reach that place. Then at four o'clock the Intercollegiate Cross-Country Ski Race will begin, the men starting at the Park Slide and ending up at the Campus about an hour later. Both the start and the finish of this race can be seen, as there will be plenty of time for anyone on the Mountain to get down to the Campus for the final sprint.

Yesterday there was a considerable number of skiers out trying the jumps. Some of the men were in good form, a distance of eighty feet having been registered. Carlton and Bache-wig of the Dartmouth team have been getting away to some excellent jumps, and will undoubtedly give the Red and White a hard run for the honors.

Dr. Lamb will be in charge of the events this afternoon, and Mr. Power of the Montreal High School will officiate on Saturday.

Programmes may be obtained at the Arts Building, the Science Building and the Union. Price ten cents.

BASKETBALL SQUADS HOLD HARD WORKOUT

Intercollegiate Team Prepares To Meet Varsity on Saturday.

DECISIVE GAME.

Team Makes Trip This Morning—Hopes Run High for Another Intercollegiate Championship.

Saturday afternoon of this week will mark the crisis of the first Intercollegiate Basketball Schedule since 1914, when McGill again meets her old rival, Varsity, at Hart House, Toronto. Queen's has been eliminated from the contest, and at present McGill has a substantial lead. To top with her, Varsity will have to win both her remaining games; the loss of either will put her out of the running.

In the world-wide revival of sport of all kinds since the cessation of hostilities, basketball has not been behind; and certainly, never have representatives from this University acquitted themselves more creditably than the present team of players. This record has been attained by dint of hard practice and careful coaching. Their achievements are on a par with those of the football and soccer squads, and they deserve every bit as much of our enthusiastic support.

McGill has already shown her superiority to Varsity, both at home and by the manner in which she piled up the score against Queen's on a strange floor, a score which greatly exceeded that of Varsity on their own floor. Although the home game against Varsity was won only by the small margin of one point, the players have

NEWSBOYS TO BE AT HALL WEDNESDAY

Novel Scene For Strathcona Next Week.

GREAT EVENT.

Arrival At 7—Supper—and Musical Programme—Splendid Opportunity.

A departure from the regular university routine will be brought into the college next Wednesday evening, when from forty to sixty newsboys of Montreal, none of whom have the opportunity of attending schools in the city, will be the guests of the university at a supper and concert in Strathcona Hall. These boys are some of the ones that members of the McGill Social Service Club undertake to teach and help two nights in every week at the Royal Alexandra School. Every one of the lads is as quick-witted and as keen as can be found on the Island of Montreal, but they have not "had the chance." They are, in most cases, regular members of the McGill Social Service night classes, and twice in the week they come to the classes to do their best to learn to play, to read and to write. They vary in age from eight to twelve or thirteen years.

As a means of bringing them into contact with the students of McGill, and also to give them something to look forward to, they have been invited to come to the "party," as they call it, at the Hall, next week. This time last year, they likewise came up to college, and spent a memorable evening at the Hall. They still delight to talk of the events of that occasion. This year, if all is favorable, the boys will be brought up in a sleigh to Strathcona. They are due to arrive here at 7 p.m., and will at once "fall to" and demolish the confections of the evening meal in their wonted eager fashion. During and after the supper, a musical programme will be featured, and excellent talent is being secured for the after-dinner part of the evening's entertainment. The opportunity that is being afforded the underdogs of McGill is indeed unique, for arrangements are being made whereby every visitor will sit beside, and have as a host, one McGill student. Here is the opportunity to come out, enjoy a supper that will be hard to equal, as the supper arrangements are in charge of the R.V.C., and get an insight into the life and character of the twentieth century newsboy. All men who wish to avail themselves of this opportunity, can be arranged for if they give their names to any member of the McGill Social Service Club, or leave them at Strathcona Hall. Men need not be timid about accepting the opportunity on the grounds of "not knowing what to say"—no class of people in the City of Montreal to-day are more familiar with sport and current events than these boys are. No class are one-half as shrewd and quick-witted, and no class are one-quarter as interesting to talk to.

Make up your mind, then, to be one of the hosts of the guests of McGill next Wednesday. Act on the impulse that is bound to strike you, and give your name in to those in charge. Tickets are selling at the price of twenty-five cents. This price does not intend to cover the cost of the meal, but is purely nominal.

INFORMAL DANCE.

The date of the Informal Dance to be held in the Union was incorrectly stated in yesterday's "Daily." This function will take place next Monday, Feb. 23rd, and not March 1st as was printed yesterday.

TO-DAY'S EVENTS.

3 p.m.—Ski Proficiency Contest at the Park Slide Hill.
Can be reached by taking Guy Street car, and getting off at the Boulevard, turning east and up the stairs to the Park Slide Road.
4 p.m.—Intercollegiate Cross-country Race—starts at Park Slide.
Can be watched by seeing the start, the men on return trip about twenty minutes later, then by descending to the Campus for the finish at about 5.15 p.m.
8 p.m.—Intercollegiate Swimming Meet in the "Y" Tank, Drummond Street.
Tickets now on sale at Union in limited numbers. Varsity and McGill compete.

'Y' TANK TO BE SCENE OF BIG MEET TO-NIGHT

First Intercollegiate Swim Since Pre-War Times.

ROOTERS' CLUB.

Rooters' Tickets May Be Obtained At Union.

The first Intercollegiate Aquatic Meet since pre-war days will be held in the Central "Y" Tank this evening at 8.00 o'clock, when Varsity and McGill contend for the championship. The McGill entries are men who proved their ability at the tank last Saturday evening. Among those who will swim for the Red and White are Winters, Fisk, Laidley, Binns, Parsons, Scott and Bastable. All these men have shown especially good form in their respective events, and will undoubtedly make the showing expected from the Red and White. Fisk and Scott may be mentioned as two especially strong men who are expected to draw firsts in their events. In the inter-faculty meet held last week, Fisk won three events—the 50 yards free style, the 50 yards back, and the 100 yards free style, and came second in the long plunge. Scott was awarded first-place in the diving events and a second place in the 100 yards free style. Winters won the long plunge and was given second honors in style diving. Laidley led the 50 yards breast, with Binns for a second. Winters had two seconds marked to his credit.

Varsity's representatives have been training consistently for some weeks. They undoubtedly have some highly efficient swimmers, and are prepared to put up a strong fight for the championship.

A feature of the meet will be the Rooters' Club. "Silk" Murphy has mustered his clan with a Ja-Da and a shimmy, and will lead them into action. He has appointed Fred MacCallum and Harrington as acting assistant cheer leaders. "Hank" Gaboury will appear as a soloist. The importance of such an organization cannot be over-emphasized. None realize the value of rooters more than the contestants themselves. A timely yell, or a waving bit of Red and White has more than once in the past meant victory. An Intercollegiate Championship may be won or lost through rooting to-day.

All those who have rooters' tickets will meet in the Central "Y" not later

AN IMPROVEMENT

We have hitherto used our column to extol the virtues of the Mock Parliament. We have also, in a fatherly way, brought every important phase and development of this important institution before our readers, to the best of our ability. Having taken such an interest in the welfare of this organization, we wish now, in a fatherly way again, to suggest an improvement, or, that we may not seem to be too forward, to point out a deficiency.

Any one who has attended all the sessions of the Mock Parliament will easily recall the method of voting. Little or no attention is paid to the debate itself, whatever it may be; the Opposition jeers and seeks every opportunity to mix up, rather than to inform, the debater. When the time for voting arrives, each side, without any consideration for the arguments put forth, stands up and votes "en masse."

This is not, strictly speaking, parliamentary. Party lines must usually be followed; but not to the utter exclusion of common sense. We think it would be far more parliamentary to be swayed by the truth and eloquence of the debater, rather than by the stubbornness of party adherence. As it stands, or sits, the parliament need not debate at all. The speaker need only count the numbers, the mere numbers, of both parties, at the beginning of the meeting, and simply hand over the reins of the government to the party in majority. The rest of the evening need not, then, be wasted.

The Mock Parliament, we have stated before, offers to the student of McGill one of the best opportunities for extempore oration. No student cares to speak to be mocked, especially when he knows that his argument, however good, will have no effect on the voting—that the whole Opposition will vote against the bill as one—that his own party will support him, even if half of them have just aroused themselves from sleep.

We are certain that if the Parties voted more conscientiously the Mock Parliament would become more interesting, more mirthful and would be of greater value to those whom it is supposed to benefit. Party feeling should be set aside, and the interests of the country should be taken into greater consideration. Above all, "Quality, Not Quantity" should be the slogan.

THE CARNIVAL

To-day is a big day in the history of the Ski Club. The stage is set for the Winter Carnival, a meet international as well as inter-collegiate. Unfamiliar colors have invaded the Campus. The Dartmouth green, the first to arrive, has been especially prominent. McGill will know it well by night. Middlebury, the University of Vermont, and Ottawa Collegiate Institute are also well represented.

Two events are scheduled for this afternoon. The Proficiency Contest at three o'clock at the Park Slide, and the Cross-country race, which starts at the Park Slide at four, finishing on the Campus about an hour later. Some of the best skiers on the continent are here to-day, and fans are looking forward to an afternoon full of thrills and skill.

THE AQUATIC MEET

To-night's the night for the swimmers. The first Intercollegiate Aquatic Meet since pre-war days will be held in the tank of the Central "Y". Varsity and McGill fight for the swimming championship this evening. To-morrow evening the feature will be the Intercollegiate Polo match, at which the results of the Varsity-McGill hockey match will be announced.

The odd rooster may mean a win.

Correspondence

The Daily is not responsible for the sentiments of letters published in the correspondence columns. Signed communications from graduates, undergraduates and members of the faculties will be placed in print if they are not of too great length.

Correspondents are requested to observe the unwritten law of the newspaper office—that they write upon ONE side of the paper ONLY.

No communication will be admitted in this column without the name of the writer being attached, not necessarily for PUBLICATION.

153 Metcalfe Street,
Montreal.

To the Editor, McGill "Daily."

Dear Sir:—

I read in the "Daily" a few days ago a short article on Ibsen which is, I think, worthy of notice, since the writer, it is obvious, has either never read any of Ibsen's plays, or is entirely unacquainted with the modern drama, for to one who has read both the influence of the Swedish author is evident. But this critic bases his disbelief in the ascendancy of the great Norse playwright on the fact that his plays are seldom, if ever, produced in this country.

I would like to know how frequently he has seen any of Shakespeare's works staged here. Not more often I should guess than once a year; yet how much greater is the influence of Shakespeare than that of Ibsen. Moreover, the former wrote in English, whereas only translations of the latter's dramas would be intelligible to the greater part of a Canadian audience. Added to this is the fact that Shakespeare (regarding his writings from a purely dramatic point of view) is without a peer, while Ibsen, like most of the modern playwrights, is more essentially a "literateur" than a dramatist.

Hoping that you will find space in your columns for the insertion of this letter,

Yours sincerely,

A. G. HENDERSON.

Montreal, 19, 2, 20.

To the Editor, McGill "Daily."

Dear Sir:—

As one who for some time has followed with interest and amazement the doings of the Parliament, so-called "MOCK", I would ask what is the meaning of this arbitrary, coercive and uncalled-for legislation? What higher authority inspires this fever of law-making, or is it due to the crass ignorance of our so-called legislators? Have we not men in an institution like our beloved McGill with enough foresight to adequately appreciate the state of affairs which now exists through the machinations of a few whose ideas of legislation savour not only of the militaristic and materialistic attitude of the late German Empire, but of the most unimagined and despotic rule of feudal times?

The Progressive Party—only so in name—is dominated and its policies are dictated by ONE person, their present leader. Evidence of the internal strife that must exist in this party is clearly shown in the recent resignation of Mr. Farthing. This, in our estimation is but a change for the worse—even if such were possible! Any party which sufficiently loses its dignity as to doubt of the death of peanuts or question a Minister of any Government as to the prevalence of wood-lice, is not one in any position to hold the reins of Government control.

As for the present Government, the Constitutional Party—in the imagination of the Clique that controls—indeed, the less said the better.

The Premier is clearly a logger-head with the majority of the Cabinet, as was only too clearly demonstrated by the attendance of Ministers at the last Session. About ten per cent of the latter was present, and we thank God for it—for the ignorance displayed by them of their duties was shown in the most vivid manner by the evasive answers and retorts ad hominem they gave to questions of national importance! For an example—the placing of a man, such as the honorable member for North Toronto in such a responsible position as that of Minister of Agriculture could only be surpassed—in the other camp—by the ignorance of Parliamentary procedure shown by the honorable member for Beauce, i.e., Lansdowne Avenue.

The time has now come, Mr. Editor, when a NEW PARTY—such as the one which but recently took over the reins of control in Ontario—must rear its head from out this murky and indescribable chaos and, manned by the AGRICULTURISTS of MCGILL, lead this Parliament back, back into the paths of SAFE, SANE and SENSIBLE legislation from which it has strayed. Where is Mr. Whiffletree in these days of dire distress? O tempora, O mores.

(Signed) THE U. F. of M.

LOYOLA WINS IN A CLOSE CLEAN GAME

Intermediates Play a Senior Brand Of Hockey.

SCORE: 8-6.

Senior Team, In Perfect Condition, Leaves For Toronto To-Day.

Before a handful of spectators, the Red and White lost a close match to Loyola last night at the new Arena. With the Senior team scheduled to play Toronto Varsity Saturday, Shag took no chances on injuring any of his star players, so he sent out his intermediate team. Judging by the score, these boys played the game to win, and it was only by some miraculous saves by Beau in the nets for Loyola that they did not come out on top. The brand of hockey played by the intermediates certainly proves the statement that McGill has three first-class teams. The playing of Gallery, McLaughlin and Lyall, on the forward line, makes one think that the regular players of the Senior squad had to show great ability to hold their positions on the team. On their showing last night, it is no wonder that they lead the Intermediate League without a defeat.

Although the outcome of the contest had no bearing on the championship, both teams played hard and showed good combination and stick work. After the face-off Loyola immediately forced the play, and the right winger of the West-End Collegians shot, but Lally cleared. But Lamarre followed in, and, shooting from the side, managed to carom the puck off Lally's skate for the first goal. However, they did not hold this advantage, for one minute later Lyall scored on a nice shot from outside the defence. Just three-quarters of a minute later Lamarre again tallied on a shot from the right boards. At this point McGill seemed to take on added strength, and after four minutes' fast going, Gallery pierced the twine by a difficult shot from the left wing. Play seemed to lag for a while, and after seven minutes' play, Kent, on a pass from Gallery, slipped the rubber past Beau. This lead was short lived, for in quick succession the opponents bulged the net for three goals. Just before the gong sounded for the first period, Kent rolled one in from outside the defence, and the period ended with the score 5-4 against the Red and White.

In the second stanza, the two teams battled for eight minutes before Hyland put a long one behind Lally. Kelly, who had been making many dangerous rushes, slammed a hard at Loyola's goals, and Lyall came in on the rebound, beating Beau for his second goal. For the balance of the period there was no scoring. Owing to the sticky condition of the ice, the players seemed to tire considerably. McGill were still one goal behind at the end of the period.

The Red and White lined up in the third period determined to overcome the lead of their adversaries. After clever stickwork around the Loyola nets, McLaughlin succeeded in notching the goal which tied the score. Immediately after the face-off, however, Lonergan took the puck, and from far out shot the disc into the corner of the net. Loyola now played a defensive game, and McGill tried desperately to even up once more. They rained many shots on Beau, who, by some wonderful blocking, was able to turn them all aside. A few minutes before the gong sounded Clement put in a lucky one for Loyola. This made the score 8-6, and although the Red and White fought gamely, they were unable to score again.

For McGill every player worked hard. The defence gave Lally good protection, while the forward-line, besides checking back, gave the Loyola defence a busy night. Lonergan and Lamarre were the pick of the Loyola team. Beau played a steady game in the nets, stopping almost impossible shots in the last period.

The line-up was as follows:

McGill	Loyola
Lally.....Goal	Beau
Kelly.....Defence	Clement

NOTICES

Members of executives and others are requested to look under this heading for notices of all festivities. Each notice is absolutely official. The Editor will not be responsible for errors in articles unless the time and date are written out in full when they are sent in.

PROFESSORIAL ATTENTION.

Word has been received from the President of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching to the effect that Professor Louis C. Karpinski will shortly visit McGill as a representative of the Foundation for the purpose of giving any further information that may be desired regarding the work of the Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association.

President Pritchett suggests that it would be well to have the names of all those who wish to interview Professor Karpinski, so that when he arrives a meeting can be arranged between them and him. To this end, will those members of the staff who are interested in this matter, kindly send their names to the undersigned at their early convenience.

Copies of the Handbook of Life Insurance and Annuity Policies, and of the Charter and By-Laws, as well as any other literature in this connection, may be obtained by writing directly to Dr. H. S. Pritchett, President of the Carnegie Foundation, 576 Fifth Avenue, New York.

UNFORMAL DANCE ON MONDAY NEXT

Will Be Held On the 23rd, Not On March 1st As Announced Yesterday.

Notice appeared in yesterday's "Daily" stating that the Union Informal Dance had been postponed from Tuesday, 24th February, to March 1st. It has finally been decided to hold this dance on Monday, February 23rd, at this date has been found most convenient. As announced, tickets were sold at the Union yesterday, between one and two o'clock, and judging by the smiles of expectation on the faces of those who were waiting to invest, the dance will be one grand success. But there are still a few tickets left, and those who apply for the remaining ones first are the lucky boys.

As was mentioned in the "Daily" of February 17, this dance is given by the Students' Council. The hostesses are Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. Brown and Miss Haribatt, and the music will be supplied by a popular jazz band.

The programme is as follows:

H. WHIFFLETREE TO BE LAW GUEST

Father Of Si To Be Escorted By Band To Mock Parliament.

An unconfirmed rumor is being circulated around the college that a delegation of farmers, headed by Hank Whiffletree, father of the well known law student, is coming to Montreal from Sim's Corners, to attend the next meeting of the Mock Parliament.

Mr. Silas Whiffletree, when seen by the "Daily" representative, proved non-committal, stating that "he's been everlastingly hounded by the press for anything for publication." His advice to the reporter was "to set right back on your hind legs and wait."

Inquiry at the law faculty elicited the information that the students were cognizant of the rumor, but had no definite news about the delegation from Sim's Corners. However, the general opinion of the students is that if Mr. Whiffletree, Sr., and his colleagues arrive in Montreal, they will be met at the station by the entire Law Faculty and escorted to the Mock Parliament with a Band.

The students feel that in view of the prominence of their fellow jurist, Mr. St. Whiffletree, this is the least they can do in the way of honoring his parent.

PARLIAMENTARY NEWS

PROGRESSIVE PARTY.

Yesterday, a most enthusiastic caucus of the Progressive Party was held. Mr. Farthing having resigned the leadership of the party, not for any political reasons, but on personal grounds, Mr. J. L. O'Brien was elected in his stead.

The Progressive Party decided to pursue a more active policy in the future as regards canvassing for supporters. The energy that has been confined to the preparation of measures and to parliamentary debate will be extended to the organization of the party. The Progressives have perhaps been slow to realize that under the present conditions it is necessary to perfect some kind of party machine; but now they mean to push the matter. The party has consistently stood for the principles contained in its platform. They have proved themselves infinitely superior in debate. Their arguments and opinions are not founded on prejudice, but they seek in every instance a broad view of the matter. Thus there is no reason why with the aid of a few industrious whips the Progressives should not resume the reins of Government. The aims are reprinted below with the object of keeping them constantly before the supporters. They have never been altered at the varied whim of popular opinion. Each plank has a specific object. The whole thing is consistent and well balanced. The platform contains no vague and impractical schemes.

The platform is reprinted below:

PANEL I.

I.—THE FRANCHISE—

- (a) Proportional Representation.

(b) Partial adoption of Initiative, Referendum and Recall.

II.—Levy on Capital to Pay off War Debt.

III.—TAXATION—

- (a) on incomes.
(b) on luxuries.
(c) on inherited fortunes.

PANEL II.

I.—DOMINION EDUCATION ACT—

- (a) Proper pay to teachers.
(b) State support of universities.

kind.

(c) Government scholarships of all kinds.

II.—STRICTER RESTRICTIONS UPON IMMIGRATION.

III.—NATIONAL INSURANCE—

Old age, sickness, widows with children, unemployment, etc.

V.—Municipal ownership of all public utilities and all services essentially monopolistic in nature.

VI.—All treaties to be passed by Parliament.

VII.—Absolute support of the League of Nations.

VIII.—Reform of the Senate.

IX.—Government control of liquor traffic.

PANEL III.

I.—Whitley Report — Increasing share in control.

II.—Eight hour day.

III.—Rest of one day and a half a week.

IV.—Minimum wage.

V.—Establishment of Labor Bureau.

VI.—Abolition of Child Labor.

VII.—The Right of Collective Bargaining.

ROOTERS' SONGS

Tune—"I'LL SAY SHE DOES."

Are we going to win to-night?
I'll say we are.
Are we going to make a fight?
I'll say we are.
But are we going to score, 1, 2, 20, or more?

Are we? I'll say we are.
Are we full of ginger and every thing?
I'll say we are.
Are we going to root and sing?
I'll say we are.
Are we jake and out for yore, beat the team to-night as we did before?
Are we? I'll say we are.

Tune—"MADAMOISELLE FROM ARMENTIERES."

What's the matter with Old McGill, Parlez-vous?
What's the matter with Old McGill, Parlez-vous?
There's nothing the matter with Old McGill.
She has won before, she can do so still.

Tune—"I'LL SAY SHE DOES."

Does she make everybody stare
I'll say she does.
Does she give 'em that "I don't care,"
I'll say she does.
But is she nicer to me and does she sit on my knee,
Does she? I'll say she does.
And does she crave a wedding
N' everything, I'll say she does.
Was she happy to get the ring,
You bet she was.
And can she dance, can she twist,
Does she do a lot of things I can't resist,
Does she? I'll say she does.

Tune—"TAMMANY."

James McGill! James McGill!
Peacefully he slumbers there,
Blissful tho' we're on a "tear"
James McGill! James McGill!
He's our father, well yes, rather
James McGill!

Tune—"Y E L L."

Tune—"TORONTO, AIN'T YE EVER COMING BACK?"

No, never!
What never?
No never!

Tune—"COME FILL YOUR GLASSES UP."

Come fill your glasses up,
To McGill, McGill, McGill.
Come drink a loving cup,
To McGill, McGill, McGill.
We will drink the wine to-night,
Drink the wine that makes hearts light
Come fill your glasses up,
To McGill, McGill, McGill.

Tune—"THERE AIN'T NO FILES ON US."

There ain't no files on us,
There ain't no files on us,
There may be files on some o' you guys,
But there ain't no files on us!

Tune—"DIXIE."

You want to be, you want to be
You want to be in Old McGill boys,
Where the Red and White are in the fight,
Morning, afternoon and night.

Tune—"PUT ON YOUR OLD GREY BONNET."

Put on your red and white sweater
For you have none better,
And we'll open up another keg of beer,
It is not for knowledge that we came to college,
But to raise H— all the year.

Tune—"MEDICAL DANCE."

The tickets for the Medical Dance which have up to the present been restricted to the Medical Undergraduates are now on sale at the Union.
Those who intend to go to the dance are warned that the number of tickets for sale is limited to 150 in order that there may be no crowding. Students should therefore buy their tickets at once. Crawford has a number of tickets for the Medical students.

There is to be a meeting of the Medical Dance Committee this afternoon (Feb. 20th), at five o'clock, at the new Medical Building. A full attendance is requested in the Assembly Hall.

Improved greatly since then, and, altogether, the evidence seems to point to another Intercollegiate Championship for "Old McGill."

Yesterday, the last practice before the team makes the trip to Toronto was held in the Central "Y" gymnasium, when the finishing touches were put to their season's training. Under the direction of Art Walsh, and with Dad Lamb crocheting from the side lines, the men were first put through a short, snappy workout in passing and combination plays, which they worked up to perfection. After that, the Intercollegiate were opposed to the Senior City League team, who gave them a pretty tough time of it. Cecil Hay, at centre, was the hub of the Intercollegiate team, and a crack shot; Monty Montgomery and Lou Kern, on the defence, were always on the job, the accurate passing of the latter being especially in evidence; while "Bones" Little and "Rainy" Perreault shot with their usual accuracy. For the City team, Manly Bourke and Marsh Kern were outstanding. When the City team had enough, after a short rest, the Intercollegiate were lined up against the Intermediate B team, with M. Bourke playing forward.

After the second game, Art Walsh coached the forwards in shooting from different positions, passing the ball to one man at a time. The ball seldom failed to find the basket, and if the shooting is up to the mark on Saturday, McGill will take more beating than Varsity is capable of handing out.

Here is the chance for fellows with a substantial bank balance to take a trip to Toronto to support a winning team. The presence of the odd rooter may make all the difference between victory and defeat.

The line-up is as follows:
Hay—Centre.
Montgomery—Defence.
L. Kern—Defence.
Perreault—Forward.
Little—Forward.
Spares—Foss and Laidley.

UNVEILING CEREMONY.

The Roll of Honor of the Faculty of Law, bearing the names of the graduates and undergraduates of this faculty who gave their lives during the war, will be unveiled in the university library at three o'clock this afternoon by Dr. Symonds.

Student—"Can a person be punished for something he hasn't done?"
Professor—"Of course not."
Student—"Well, I haven't done my trig lesson to-day."

STATEMENTS REGARDING THE S. C. MOVEMENT

In the pursuit of truth, beauty and righteousness; to prepare themselves by study, discipline and prayer, for the tasks of the future; joyfully to accept God's gift of deliverance and life for themselves; and to enter the fellowship of worship, thought and service which is the heritage of the Christian Church."

The Canadian Airm and Basis, as suggested at the Des Moines Convention, "To serve as a bond of union and a le as follows:

means of maintaining and deepening their spiritual life for all students of the University who accept Jesus Christ as the supreme revelation of God, or who desire to understand and test the Christian standards of conduct and society.

"To bring the influence of this Association to bear upon the student body with a view to permeating the whole student life with Christian ideals of conduct and service.

"To insist on the obligation resting on all students to consecrate themselves to lives of unselfish service in whatever vocations they may follow; to emphasize the special need of workers in the various social and missionary enterprises of the Church; and to provide, as far as possible, opportunities for definite service on the part of the students themselves."

REVERSE IN VERSE.

Jake and Looie owned a store
Small money did they make;
The draft called Looie off to war—
He left the store to Jake.

When Looie landed over there,
Jake wrote this letter sad:
"Dear Looie: I am blue for fair
To tell you news so bad.

"Our business, it went up in flames;
Insurance I collected;
No use to mention any names,
But nothing was neglected."

Wrote Looie: "Jake, no need to tell
How much I am elated;
I can't say much—the censor—well,
Just be congratulated.

"And Jake, I have but one request,
As home, my thoughts are turning,
Send me that song we like the best;
'Just Keep the Home Fires Burn- ing.'"

PUBLISHERS' PERPLEXITIES.

Alas and alack! Mr. H. G. Dwight's delightful book on "Constantinople: Old and New" has been "remaindered." In other words, so few copies of this volume have been sold by the publishers at $5 that now one finds them in stacks for $2 on the bargain table in almost any bookshop, along with the "Life and Letters of Lady Nobody" and the "History of Tierra del Fuego." That a book like this, with a real style, should go the way of the worst lack volume shows something of the perplexities of modern book publishing. Surely it is not possible that anyone has suspected Mr. Dwight of being a spreader of propaganda for the Sultan. For all his presentation of the Turkish way of looking at things, he could hardly be charged with any such enormity.

Orderly: I tried to, sir, but I got contradictory orders from headquarters.—Widow.

SOPHOMORES BATTLE WITH THE JUNIORS

Final Inter-class Hockey
Match Results In a Draw.

SCORE: 3-3.

Overtime Play Very Fast—
Both Teams Scoring One Point Each.

An interesting hockey match took place yesterday afternoon between the Juniors and Sophomores. The ice was not very good as there was considerable shelf ice around the sides, as well as snow, but the closeness of the play and the keenness of the two sides, made the match one of particular interest to the spectators, a considerable portion of whom were girls. Although ten minutes overtime was played neither side could obtain a lead and the game ended in a tie—three all.

At 15 minutes when the match started, it was decided to play two fifteen minute halves. Buchanan was the first to score for the Juniors almost as soon as play had started, then began a hard fight, the Sophs scoring two goals before half time. In the second half the Juniors held the Sophomores down and a few minutes before full time succeeded in netting another goal, making the score a tie, which it remained until the whistle blew. It was then decided to play five minutes each way, but still no decision was reached as both sides scored one goal, and the game had to end—a draw.

The match was characterized throughout by clean play, and good stick-handling on the part of Laurie and Buchanan. The Sophomores showed considerably more combination than the Juniors, who relied rather too much on the individual play of two men. The referee, Jock Welch, kept a strict watch on the game, putting off several men during the second half, but only for minor offences.

The line-up was as follows:

Juniors	Sophomores
Richardson.....Goal.....	Lachaine
Buchanan.....Forward.....	Winters
Parker.....Forward.....	Maw
Bradford.....Forward.....	Pewtress
Laurie.....Defence.....	Skinner
Chauvin.....Defence.....	Ness
Spares—Juniors: Doherty and Jones
Sophomores: Beaudin.

HOMEMAKERS.

The second meeting of the Homemakers' Literary Society will be held this afternoon, at three o'clock, in Room 207, Main Building. We hope all the girls will make a special effort to be present, as there will be a number of very important things discussed in connection with the coming debate. There will also be a good programme, and they are sure to enjoy the afternoon.

BEWARE!!

Boys, don't be surprised if you have to sit on the fence to-night, as the girls have done a good deal of it this week.

BLOOMERS.

In a recent issue of Punch there was a cartoon called "The Penitent," in which Mr. Punch, always ready to admit his exceptional "bloomers," does penance for his error of thirty-five years ago, and begs to offer his respectful congratulations to Lady Astor, M.P. The lady in the picture, who was supposed to represent what a lady Member of Parliament would have looked like thirty-five years ago, was garbed in trousers, or bloomers. In England, "bloomer" is a slang expression for a mistake, and trousers for ladies were thus called after Mrs. Bloomer, who tried to introduce their use among ladies. It is rather a curious fact that both Lady Astor and Mrs. Bloomer were Americans.

THE SOFT-PEDAL TRUCK.

To the great number of American citizens who are quite sure, whether or not they believe the same about children, that automobile trucks should be seen and not heard, the new year begins more brightly for the report that more and more of these soon-to-be-omnipresent vehicles will hereafter wend their way on pneumatic tires. One has often been tempted to address the driver in the Shakespearean words, "Wisely and slowly; They rattle that run fast." Pleasant humor, however, would accomplish little in persuading truck-owners to seek a quieter way of going about their business; but business sense, once it becomes convinced that pneumatic tires give more speed and service, save the machinery, and cost less in the long run, will undoubtedly discard the rumbling, hard rubber tires as fast as possible. One may expect some elephantine effects in truck tires, but those will be rather a delight to the eye than otherwise.

M'DONALD WIN IN BASKETBALL WITH H'L'DERS

The Game Was Characterized By Clean Play
Throughout.

TEMPLETON SCORES 16.

Superiority Of Green and Gold From Beginning To End.

Macdonald won her second game of Basketball from the Royal Highlanders at Macdonald last night, with the big end of a score of 36-22. This score is in a direct ratio to the form and style of the two teams. Macdonald led from the start and continued throughout.

In the first half, Ameron opened the score with a very pretty shot, but the Highlanders evened the score in two fouls in succession. The score did not stop long at this, for Templeton, Major and Bowen scored in rapid succession. The Highlanders scored again, bringing the score to 8-4. After this, Mac had another spell of good playing, showing plenty of form in passing. The Highlanders tried hard to find the basket, but their shooting was not effective. The playing was fast, and the passing of Macdonald was particularly worthy of mention. In this half, Ameron scored 8 and Templeton 8, the first half ending 21-12 for Macdonald.

In the second half the Highlanders came on the floor feeling that, having found the basket in the first half, they would make a better showing in the second, but the home team showed that they still could put their best foot forward. Ameron, Skinner and Templeton each found the basket. At this period, Ameron did some particularly fine work. His speed was splendid; so fast was he that the Highlanders' defence was unable to follow him at all. Play during this half became slower, and the home team took it easy, playing a passing game with a lot of long shots which did not find the basket. The Highlanders were playing hard, their forwards began to show more passing and kept the ball close to their opponents' end. However, Hatch, who replaced Bowen in the second half, was always on the job, and held down their attack most effectively. Major also played a steady game throughout.

For the Highlanders, Parke, Cootes and Gallagher played the best game. Their defence was weak and indulged in a lot of long passing from end to end, which almost invariably went to the Macdonald defence. The whistle blew with the final score in favor of Macdonald—36-22.

The line-up was as follows:

Macdonald	Highlanders
Ameron.....Forward.....	Park
Skinner.....Forward.....	Cootes
Templeton.....Centre.....	Gallagher
Major.....Defence.....	Brook
Bowen.....Defence.....	Lanter
Spares—Macdonald: Hatch, High-landers: Bennett and McKay.

R.V.C. NOTES

4th YEAR.

The 4th Year Class in Physical Education will not meet until further notice.

Taken from Room 7, Friday afternoon, one copy of the Sen's Journal. Will find please return to Mr. Stagg as soon as possible.

R. V. C. 22 CLASS MEETING.
A meeting of R. V. C. 22 was held yesterday with the President, Miss Fry, in the chair. The business of the meeting was to elect debaters for the Senior-Sophomore debate. Miss Louise Weibel and Miss Norah James were chosen. The meeting then adjourned.

THE FIRST STRIKE.

Although it detracts nothing from present perplexities, it is interesting to know, on the word of a decipherer of ancient records, that in the year 308 B.C. there was a strike of the musicians' union in Rome. The officials of Rome, it appears, thought that the musicians should play without pay at a forthcoming festival in honor of Jupiter. The musicians thought otherwise, and although Rome, then engaged in one of the Samnite wars, had little money to spend for music, decided not to "do their bit" by performing without pay. Apparently the argument that they were really playing for Jupiter himself was tried without effect. So the city officials decided on an appeal to public opinion; they evolved a stratagem by which they deceived the striking musicians to the scene of the festival, and, with all Rome looking expectantly at them, the musicians changed their minds and there was "music as usual."

LIFE OF METALS TO BE EXAMINED

Society of Chemical Industry
Will Hold Meeting.

Of interest to Chemical and Engineering students will be the lecture to be given by Messrs. Roast and Pascoe to-night before the Society of Chemical Industry, on "The Inner Life and Habits of Metals." The merits of these speakers is well known to the University, and an instructive evening is to be expected. The feature of this meeting is a Picture Talk, illustrated by lantern slides and made of further interest by the addition of six microscopes set up on specimens for examination.

This meeting will be held in the Engineering Institute of Canada, 176 Mansfield Street, at eight o'clock. All students interested in this subject are invited to attend.
